All About Title I

What is the purpose of this meeting?

Federal guidelines require Title I schools to hold an Annual Parent Meeting About the Benefits of the Title I Schoolwide Program to inform parents of Title I requirements and discuss their rights to be involved in the Title I Schoolwide Program.

Lincoln- Marti Charter Schools Hialeah is a Title I School

All About Title I (Cont'd.)

Title I is the largest federally funded education program under Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

- It is designed to provide students with additional help in Reading, Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies.
- The main objective is to support schools and districts to ensure that high-quality education is equitable for all students.
- The Title I Schoolwide Program is committed to helping schools close the achievement gap between disadvantaged and minority students and their peers.
- To learn more, please visit <https://title1.dadeschools.net> . This website is designed to provide visitors with information relevant to Title I and to offer a clear understanding of the overall program.

All About Title I (Cont'd.)

How does the ESSA and the Title I Parent and Family Engagement requirements help parents and families?

- The school district and all Title I schools must allocate a portion of their Title I budget towards programs, activities, and procedures for parent and family engagement.
- The school district and all Title I schools must develop with parents and families a written Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). This PFEP must be distributed to all stakeholders.
- All Title I schools are required to collaborate with parents and families in the development of the School Improvement Plan (SIP) and School-Parent Compact.

Title I District-Level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

- The District-Level PFEP is a blueprint of how the District Local Educational Agency (LEA) and Title I schools will work together with parents and families to establish expectations for family engagement and explore strategies to improve student academic achievement.
- The District-Level PFEP describes how the District will:
 - Provide coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist schools in planning and implementing effective parent and family engagement activities.
 - Conduct, with meaningful involvement of parents and families, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent and family engagement plan towards improving the academic quality of all schools served under Title I, Part A.

Title I School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

- The Title I School-Level PFEP is a blueprint of how Lincoln- Marti Charter Schools Hialeah will work together with parents, family members, and the community to establish expectations for family engagement and to explore strategies to improve student academic achievement.

Title I School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP) (Cont'd.)

- Our Title I School-Level PFEP describes how our school will:
 - Convene an annual meeting to inform parents and family members of their rights to be involved in the Title I program; participate in parent/teacher conferences; Invite family members to visit classrooms during designated times to observe a typical day in the school life of their child; Extracurricular Activities; Tutoring Programs; special events; family-teacher workshops.
 - Offer meetings at flexible times to maximize participation;
 - Provide parents and family members with timely information about Title I programs; parents will be contacted via flyers, Blackboard Connect messages, school website, Apps, and Letters.

Title I School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP) (Cont'd.)

- Involve parents and families in the process of planning, reviewing, and improving documents required by the Title I Program and schoolwide activities in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner;
- Assist parents and families with understanding academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the academic achievement of their children; and by participating in open houses, School Webinars and Workshops, and Teacher- Parent Conferences.
- Provide training to assist parents and families of students enrolled in schools implementing the Title I Schoolwide Program to improve academic achievement by inviting parents and families to participate in school-related activities, meetings, and workshops.

Title I School-Parent Compact

- Each Title I school must have a School-Parent Compact that is developed jointly by parents and school personnel.
- The compact sets out the responsibilities of the students, parents, and school staff in striving to raise student academic achievement.
- The compact will be discussed and amended during parent-teacher conferences and documented in a teacher communication log (K-5 only).

Parents, Families and Schools Working Together

What does school and parent collaboration look like?

- Our school fosters collaboration with families by offering activities, training sessions, workshops, and parent-teacher conferences at flexible meeting times. On October 8, there will be a workshop to inform and assist parents on how to navigate the FAST Portal and comprehend student data reports. We also provide a Parent Resource Center/Area to support family engagement.
- School and parent partnerships are strengthened through participation in advisory councils such as the Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC), the Title I District Advisory Council (DAC), and the North Region Parent Advisory Council (PAC).
- Members of the Title I DAC and Region PAC are parent representatives who consult with the District Title I DAC about the planning and implementation of the Title I Schoolwide Program.

Parents, Families and Schools Working Together (Cont'd.)

- The school conducts elections for Title I DAC/PAC Representatives.

We will now open the floor for nominations for parents to serve as DAC/ PAC representatives for our school.
